CARROLL AT CRIME SCENE, SAYS GIRL

In Spotlight

By JOHN BRADFORD MAIN

Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

At Death Trial

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug. 9—In a hushed and tense courtroom, a surprise girl witness testified today that on the night Dr. James G. Littlefield was slain she saw Francis M. Carroll near the home of Paul N. Dwyer, where the slaying occurred.

The surprise witness, pretty Miss Hazel Talbot, 18, declared Carroll, then a deputy sheriff, was seated in a car parked beyond the Dwyer house.

She placed the date as the night of October 13, 1937, because that was her sister's birthday.

Miss Talbot's testimony against Carroll, father of Barbara Carroll, 17-year-old sweetheart of Dwyer, the youth who is now serving life for the Littlefield murder, came as the State moved toward completion of its case.

The Oxford County courthouse was again packed to capacity in anticipation that the state, before it rests, might call Barbie to the stand.

Miss Talbot said she was out riding with a friend that night, between 7 and 7:30 o'clock.

Doug Agrees To Make Film

East Boston airport, aboard a regular New York plane.

He had to step lively, so he sent downstairs for the shirt and tie while he took a hasty shower and a "once-over" shave.

The same auto which carried him on his parade of triumph here yesterday was waiting for him at the hotel door.

On his way to the airport Corrigan picked up Mayor Tobin at the Parker House.

The American Airlines plane was waiting for its internationally famous passenger.

"Non-Stop" Doug waved a quick good-by to Boston and roared off to other welcomes elsewhere.

GETS ANOTHER MEDAL

An hour later he was at Newark, N. J., and was once more the center of official attention.

Acting Mayor Vincent J. Murphy gave him a gold medal, then escorted him on a renewed round of public acclamation.

Doug was due to fly to Baltimore this afternoon.

Corrigan's decision to accept the movie offer was made in Boston on advice of friends here, including Mayor Tobin.

All told him fame is fleeting and success is a strange and fickle creature. They urged him to accept the $50,000 dangled before him by a Hollywood producer and begin his life work with this reassuring nest egg.

"I guess they're right," Doug agreed as he dressed this morning.

Ruefully and with wrinkled forehead, he fingered his "sole clean shirt, the new, green one. Then he donned it with an air of finality and snapped:

"Yep, $50,000 will buy me a lot of airplane."

It was learned that the grinning Irish flier will make one picture around a scenario which is now being written about his extraordinary "wrong way" flight from New York to Dublin.

Then, come what offers may, he is all done with the films. He will accept the best offer made to him in any branch of the aviation industry.

Douglas Corrigan has no illusions about ever becoming a matinee idol. Almost afraid, he told Mayor Tobin:

"Gosh I'll look awful funny in a movie; I'm not the type. It takes some one with looks like yours."

The modest youth, who drove all of Boston into undreamed frenzy, doesn't want to fall short of the best in anything. That's why he balked at even one short film.

HEADS FOR NEWARK

Doug's late sleep this morning seemed to have done him good. "Sleep fine," he said. "Feel like a new man, except for these hands of mine. There's hardly any feeling in them yet. I guess no man ever shook so many hands in one day."

His personal bodyguards, Patrolmen John J. Corrigan and Joseph R. Corrigan, then sped him to the Boston airport to board the 9:20 airliner for Newark.

"Thank every one in Boston for me," was his parting message.

"Never have I seen such kindness and hospitality. Tell the people of Boston that I want to come back soon when all this fuss is over and do a little plain, ordinary visiting. You can bet I'm going to do it too—as a plain citizen."

With the little flier's departure, Boston and more than a million of its citizens pined themselves to see if it really was true. In a few short hours, they had staged the most spontaneous, nois-est and most downright rollicking welcome ever accorded a "new name" visitor.

At a "dozen places, Corrigan nobly went through tiring receptions, as if he was having the best time of his life. At the airport, City Hall, the State House, the Children's Hospital and two orphan's homes, the aviator grinned his way into all hearts.

At a dinner at the Copley-Plaza Hotel Corrigan faced the lie detector of Dr. William Moulton Marston of Harvard, the inventor of the much-discussed machine. It seems Boston officials wanted to settle once and for all concerning that "wrong way" business.

When the questions were all in, the lie detector decided that Doug really intended to fly for California when he left the field, but as soon as he got in the air he decided it would be a good day to strike off for Ireland.

At any rate, the little machine—if you believe in it—decided that Corrigan hasn't been telling all the truth about being surprised when he landed in Ireland.

Health Experts Fight Pollution

Arthur D. Weston, chief sanitary engineer of the State Department of Health, and Dr. Frederick J. Bailey, deputy health commissioner for Boston, will confer today on means necessary for eliminating pollution of water at bathing beaches.

The conference results from a survey conducted by the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser, which revealed that sewage is polluting the waters of beaches in Boston, Quincy and Weymouth to a dangerous degree.

Declaring that "anyone who attempts to whitewash conditions in Boston Harbor is foolish," Weston said today, prior to the conference, that he favors construction of sewage works to prevent such pollution.

These, he said, would cost a total of approximately $14,000,000, one to be built at Moon Island at a cost of about $3,000,000, one

Bandit Admits $700 Holdup In Cambridge

Charles Bird, notorious Cleveland bank bandit, and his attractive, blond wife, Barbara, also of Cleveland, confessed to Baltimore police today they were the pair who at gunpoint robbed the National Biscuit Co. of a $700 payroll in Cambridge, last May.

5 Youths Saved In Choppy Seas As Boats Upset

Five youths were rescued from choppy seas today in two widely-separated accidents that pitched them overboard from capsized craft.

Two Charlestown brothers, Thomas Howell, 22, and Robert, 20, of Elm street, were pulled to safety in the Little Mystic river after their sailboat had overturned in a sudden gust of wind.

H. J. Rudd of Banks street, Brighton, shipbuilding plant employee, who saw the mishap, put out in a small boat and took them ashore.

At Nantasket Beach, three others were taken from the water by coast guard surfmen when their rowboat tipped over while they were inspecting lobster traps.

They were Martin Colbert, 16, of T street; Felix Marcello, 16, and Eugene Toll, 18, of Beach street. All are Nantasket summer residents.

Earlier, the Scituate coast guard crew towed into that harbor a cabin cruiser carrying six passengers. The cruiser had been disabled seven miles off shore in a severe electrical storm.

Those on board were Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Locke, Miss Elizabeth Delert, Mrs. Fred Vachili, Mrs. Thomas Culbert, and S. Russell Walker, owner and master of the craft.

DUCE IN SHAM FIGHT

TAGLIACCOZZO, Italy, Aug. 9 (AP)—Premier Mussolini harried with his men into sham battle today in army maneuvers in the mountain lands of Abruzzi.

Bird confessed participation in the Cambridge holdup two hours after the couple were arrested. He said:

"I might as well clear up all I've done. They are going to give me life in Cleveland."

Federal agents, checking back on alleged crimes of the Birds, said golden-haired young Mrs.

Bird abandoned a baby son, 13 months old, when she went "on the lam" with her fugitive husband last September.

She kissed the baby goodby, according to G-men, then she smuggled three guns into the towering county jail at Cleveland, arming Bird and two pals for their subsequent escape.

Their getaway auto killed a woman.

Cambridge and Massachusetts state police had sought Bird and his wife under the names of Charles and Helen Schnell, aliases they had used while occupying a cottage at Natick.

Capture of the pair in Baltimore came when they rode into a machine-gun-covered trap.

Baltimore police wanted them for a series of robberies there.

HELP UP GIRLS

In staging the Cambridge hold-up the pair, each armed, forced 20 girl clerks into an office corner and then seized the payroll with which they fled. Their automobile was later found in Brookline.

Capt. of Detectives John A. Conroy said Bird admitted his identity and that of his wife after the officer had removed a piece of adhesive tape from the man's arm and revealed the tattooed initials "C. B."

The Birds have a year-old son, Charles, Jr., living with his grandparents in Cleveland.

Captain Conroy said Bird told him he and his wife came here in May after the Cambridge hold-up. They were forced to abandon their car, he said, and later bought a new one. The car, a big green sedan, led to their arrest.

MRS. RUTH NICKERSON YOUNG

True Love Laughs at Court Row

Boy meets girl, boy loses girl, boy gets girl!

That's the recipe for true love, Hollywood tells us, and that's the story that came alive for Ruth F. Nickerson of Warren street, Needham, dietitian at the Danvers State hospital, and George V. Young of Oxford street, Lynn, former worker at the same institution.

Though the modest bride denies it, the story is written out in the records.

How they met and "kept company" at the hospital was testified on April 26 this year in Salem district court by Miss Nickerson.

That was when George was in process of "losing" his girl, for she had him up in court for striking her. He was found guilty of assault and battery and given a suspended sentence of six months.

Apparently that was no more than a lover's quarrel, however, for today city records and fellow workers showed that Ruth Nickerson, 31-year-old dietitian, and George Young, 38, now working in Lynn, slipped off to Portsmouth, N. H., July 15 and were quietly wed.

Studio Call Halts Her Honeymoon

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 9 (AP)—Studio work interrupted the honeymoon today of Lynn Bailey, brunette actress, and Dr. Michael M. Gordin, Hollywood, who were married in La Jolla, Calif. Miss Bailey, once selected the most beautiful model in California, was recalled to Paramount for added scenes in "Artists and Models abroad."

3000 Dark Angels Troop Into 'Heaven'

KINGSTON, N. Y., Aug. 9 (INS)—Three thousand of Father Divine's dusky angels today trooped into their new "heaven" directly across the Hudson river from President Roosevelt's Hyde Park estate.

Delayed overnight at Milton-on-the-Hudson because "heaven" had no boat landing for their steamer, they arrived by bus.

Days in advance Harlem had shrieked from billboards the invitation to participate in a two-day excursion to the 500-acre "heaven" newly bought for $31,000 by Father Divine from Howland Spencer, boyhood friend and adult enemy of the President and all his works.

So with the rising sun the steamers New York and Manhattan pulled away from their down-river docks.

Father Divine himself, who is considered God by his followers, was first aboard, arriving with five secretaries in his special 10-passenger automobile.

Song swelled along the river as 3000 tuneless throats emitted the Divine theme song, "How Sweet Is the Name of Father."

A $50,000 Deb's Bow

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 9—This city of super-colossal summer estates and prodigious parties arched an inquisitive eyebrow today as a huge ballroom raised its roof for a single night of gaiety.

The structure has been built on their Brenton's Cove estate by Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Ripley of New York for the $50,000 coming-out party of their only daughter, Leslie Hope Ripley, on Saturday night.

More than two-score workmen have been engaged for three months erecting the spacious ballroom as an annex to the palatial Ripley residence.

The Ripley debutante party is expected to be one of the most lavish affairs Newport has witnessed since the depression of 1929 cramped society fetes.

Leslie Ripley

The cream of the social register is represented in the invitations sent out for the event, and it was for their convenience the huge "one-night-stand" ballroom was built.

Another debutante affair here on the same night will draw an equally fashionable coterie of guests.

It is the coming-out date for Miss Hope Bacon Saunders, fourth daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Truman Laurence Saunders of New York.

Her sister, Miss Lucy Saunders, stirred society circles of New York and Newport recently when she took a job here at $20 a week as salesgirl in the Newport branch of a Gotham department store.

Save Baby, 2 Perish In Fire

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., Aug. 9 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. William T. Adea, prominent in Eastern society, were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed their big, rambling home.

Their 21-month-old son, George T. Adea, their only heir, was saved by the heroism of a young nurse maid and a volunteer fireman with a broken arm.

The fireman, Anthony Reas, handyman on a neighboring estate, was awakened by smoke and found the north end of the mansion, where Mr. and Mrs. Adea slept, enveloped in flames.

He heard a woman screaming and in the nursery window, 37 feet above the ground on the south end of the house, saw the maid, Lillian Henion, 19, with the baby in her arms.

Reas, who had broken his right arm several days ago and was carrying it in a sling, shouted: "Jump!"

Miss Henion jumped, holding the baby tightly. Reas broke their fall by catching the weight on his left side.

Both man and girl were stunned by the impact. The baby was unhurt.

Meanwhile, new arrivals tried to get a ladder up to the Adeas' bedroom where Mrs. Adea could be seen pounding frantically on a tightly shut window. Flames blocked them.

Suddenly Mrs. Adea toppled backward. The floor gave way beneath her and they saw her body drop into the room below.

When the wreckage cooled firemen found Adea's body where it had fallen into the basement.

Coroner Edward B. Garrison said there were no indications as to the cause of the fire.

Adea, 37 years old, was a crack court tennis player who had participated in many eastern tournaments.

World's Wars Raging On

By Associated Press

New clashes between Soviet and Japanese troops added to the world's disorders today, while Arabs and Jews fought in the Holy Land and wars continued in China and Spain.

The Tokyo war office said Russian forces were concentrating cavalry, artillery and tanks in the disputed Siberian-Korean border zone where fighting has been going on daily.

In China, Japanese planes bombed Canton for the second consecutive day.

Fighting in Spain was confined to isolated engagements on the west bank of the Ebro river in Catalonia province. Both insurgent and government armies tested after bitter fighting of the past two weeks.

In Palestine, an Arab was slain in Jerusalem and a Jew and Arab were wounded in a shooting between Tel Aviv and Jaffa. British troops fought an armed band in the hills, wounding three, capturing four.

New German-Czechoslovak tension was indicated by attacks on Czechoslovakia by the Nazi press. The attacks grew out of the slaying of a 28-year-old Sudeten German, Wenzel Bailer.

In France, President Lebrun disclosed he would interrupt his vacation to attend army maneuvers along the Italian frontier.

LONDON, Aug. 9 (AP).—The possibility of British mediation of the Russo-Japanese dispute was seen today in talks Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary, had with Soviet and Japanese representatives.

Hurley Again Presses Relief Fund Demand

Governor Hurley made a renewed effort today to force his unemployment relief spending program on a hostile Legislature.

He asked that $5,000,000 of unexpended gasoline tax money be placed immediately at disposal of the State Public Works Department for highway construction and maintenance.

His plan, if approved, would put 5000 men to work within a week and would keep them employed for at least five months, the governor said.

The new program, outlined in his message and in a legislative bill accompanying the message, differed little from previous Hurley programs, turned down by House and Senate.

The governor still stuck to his guns, demanding that the state not towns and cities, have the spending of the gasoline tax funds.

CRASH IN HINGHAM

John H. Maguire, 32, of Byerly street, Medford, escaped with slight cuts and bruises today when the auto he was driving on Whiting street, Hingham, was demolished in a rear-end collision with a parked truck.

Red Shells Batter Jap Lines

YUKI, Korea (Near Siberian Frontier), Aug. 9 (AP).—Soviet Russia's heavy artillery today subjected Japanese lines on Changkufeng Hill to the most terrific shelling they had received since the current Siberian-Korean border trouble started July 11.

All afternoon Soviet guns poured six-inch shells at the rate of at least six a minute along the entire four-mile Japanese front.

Veterans who saw the bombardment said it equalled anything seen in the World War.

Austrian Doctor Suicide in Purge

LONDON, Aug. 9 (INS).—Dr. Rudolf Leidler, famous Austrian nose and throat specialist, committed suicide in Vienna because of the recent Nazi decree cancelling medical licenses of all Jewish doctors in Greater Germany, according to a Reuter dispatch today.

GREEN IN ARGENTINA

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 9 (AP).—United States Senator Theodore Green (D.) of Rhode Island is here today for a brief visit to Argentina. The Senator said his trip was for a first hand study of South America.

Pro-Roosevelt Senators Get Test at Polls

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 (AP).—The popular strength of three pro-Roosevelt senators was being determined today in primary elections in Ohio, Arkansas and Idaho.

Only the Idaho contest, however, was conceded by both sides to be a direct test of New Deal appeal. It was between Senator James P. Pope, co-author of the 1938 Crop Control Act, and Representative D. Worth Clark, foe of the government reorganization bill and other White House measures.

Senators Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio and Hattie Caraway of Arkansas, who, like Pope, have gone down the line for the administration, also had opposition.

DEMIES ENDORSEMENT

Mrs. Caraway's major rival was Representative John L. McClellan, who declared that Mr. Roosevelt's reference to the only woman senator as a "very old friend" did not constitute an endorsement.

In Ohio, the Democratic contest between Senator Bulkley and former Gov. George White was less sensational than two other primary races in the state. Bulkley was the apparent choice of Mr. Roosevelt, who spoke highly of him in a speech last month.

The Republican senatorial battle was a heated one between Robert Taft, son of the former president, and Judge Arthur Day of the Ohio Supreme Court.

DAVEY ACCUSED

The third major fight in Ohio was over the Democratic nomination for governor. The incumbent, Martin J. Davey, was opposed by National Committeeman Charles Sawyer.

As in Ohio, voters in Arkansas, Idaho and Nebraska were choosing nominees for governors and national representatives today. The Democratic governors of the three latter states like Davey, were candidates for another term.

Sen. Caraway Blanks Foe In First Return

BRISCOE, Ark., Aug. 9 (AP).—Upper Hill township in rural Franklin County, first precinct in Arkansas to complete balloting in the Democratic primary, reported the following vote:

For U. S. senator, Caraway 25; McClellan 6; Venable 0; for Governor, Bailey 25; Cook 6; McNutt 0; for second district congressman, Wilbur D. Mills 25; Roy Richardson 0.

Frieda Mierse, Ed Wynn Part

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 (INS).—Frieda Mierse, Broadway beauty and Ed Wynn, her comedian husband have definitely parted, it was confirmed today.

The former show girl announced she would take immediate steps to obtain a divorce with the remark:

"Though I intend to divorce him, I shall always consider him my friend. I want children of my own. I'm tired of knitting things for other people's babies. I want gaiety. I want life. I am weary of being suppressed and depressed."

Shopkeeper Held On Book Charge

After a police raid on a South End book shop, allegedly much frequented by college and summer school students, Maurice Reisman, 36, of Blue Hill avenue, Dorchester, was held in $500 on two counts of possessing improper books and pictures.

He pleaded not guilty and was granted a continuance to August 26 in municipal court.

Seek to Break G.O.P. Control

By ALFRED D. WHELTON

Democratic leaders have organized a statewide drive for the overthrow of Republican members of the legislature—and are concentrating the drive in places that have hitherto been known as rock-ribbed Republican, it was learned today.

Father of the thought was the present legislative deadlock between Governor Hurley and the Republican-controlled legislature which he refuses to prorogue until legislation to his liking for unemployment relief is passed.

The drive, of course, is contingent upon the impending decision of the state ballot law commission, which must rule on the legality of nomination papers filed by those who seek seats in the House, the Senate and the Governor's Council.

Even then, should the commission and possibly the supreme court rule that sodas must be elected at large instead of by districts, the drive is due to continue toward a legislative majority of Democrats in 1939, elected at large.

FAILED TO ACT

The question before the commission hinges upon an article of the state constitution which provides for re-apportionment of the state's voters every 10 years, starting with passage of the law in 1925. The 1925 legislature failed to do it nor has any session since.

Under the same law, the article set up the present representative, senatorial and councillor districts UNTIL the first Wednesday of January, 1939. It was on this point that a protest against all candidates for such offices was filed by Charles H. McGlue, former chairman of the Democratic state committee.

One of the first selected for the drive for Democratic power in normally Republican strongholds was James H. Dwyer of Scituate, veteran railroad man and power among the Democrats in Plymouth county.

Dwyer's district comprises Scituate, Marshfield, Pembroke, Hanover, Norwell and Duxbury, all of which have never been represented by Democrats.

OTHER DRIVES

Sections in the western and central parts of the state as well as communities toward Blackstone Valley and the Rhode Island line have similarly been placed in charge of Democratic leaders.

To date the work has consisted of canvasses by committees in each town toward a change of registration from the Republican or Independent to the Democratic columns.

From reports throughout the state, it was indicated that the workers behind the movement are making considerable progress and expect to swing many of the Republican strongholds to the Democratic column.

J. I. Fitzgerald Threat Probed

An alleged threat against City Councillor John I. Fitzgerald was being investigated by police today.

A West End man said he'd "give Fitzgerald a beating-up," authorities were informed.

Friends of Fitzgerald passed along word they had received that: "If anything happens to John I., you'll know who to blame."

Police were told that the alleged threat was made at a West End gathering, not far from the politically-famous Hendricks club.

Once the headquarters of the late "Boss" Martin Lomasney, the club is now a gathering place for Fitzgerald's supporters.

Fitzgerald's friends were sufficiently worried over the "threat" today upon him to make a formal complaint at the Joy street police station.

student, said she recognized Carroll sitting in the car and declared she knew his black sedan well, having seen him sitting in it several times.

"I never thought he'd be on Paris Hill," the girl witness replied when asked if she thought it unusual to see Carroll there. The boy friend who was with her, Robert Pierce, testified that he saw a man in the parked car but he was unable to identify Carroll today in court as that man.

Another witness, Deputy Sheriff Clark C. Hunt, testified that both he and Carroll had cigarette lighters of the type as that found outside the Dwyer house by Sheriff Fernando Francis.

Hunt declared he could not recall having seen Carroll use his lighter since the date of the physician's murder death.

More testimony regarding the presence of cars was given by a little red-headed South Paris girl, Virginia Moore, who said she had seen two cars near the Dwyer some the night of the doctor-slaying.

One was "a big car" in front of the Dwyer home. The other was in the country club parking lot across the street, and a man was in this machine.

However, red-haired Virginia said she did not know if the man was Carroll.

One witness today was the famous Captain Harry Lyon, who was navigator of the Southern Cross, the Kingsford-Smith plane which flew from California to Australia several years ago.

Lyon, whose home is in South Paris, said he saw a light in the Dwyer home on the night of October 13, the murder date. This was at about 10:45.

A visit by Carroll to Dwyer in State Prison at Thomaston was described on the stand by Warden John Welch of the prison. Both Dwyer and Carroll were excited at the meeting, Warden Welch revealed.

"Carroll was sitting at the end of the table, talking very earnestly," said the warden. "Dwyer was slumped over, his face as red as a beet. He was in a very upset condition. I could see his heart beating through his shirt."

GOVERNOR TOOK HAND

The warden testified that Governor Lewis O. Barrows interceded with him to obtain permission for representatives of a New York newspaper to see Dwyer in the prison in connection with a civil court action.

Sitting as a guest of Presiding Justice William H. Fisher today as the drama which has rocked this whole north country unfolded was Justice Nathan D. Lapham of the New York Supreme Court.

BABS IN PARIS

PARIS, Aug. 9 (AP)—Countess Barbara Haugwitz-Reventlow, Woolworth heiress, arrived here alone today for an indefinite stay.

TODAY'S Q. AND A.

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug. 9.—This is testimony today in the trial of former Deputy Sheriff Francis M. Carroll, whom Paul M. Dwyer, lifer and former sweetheart of Carroll's daughter, now accuses of slaying Dr. and Mrs. James G. Littlefield.

Special Prosecutor Ralph M. Ingalls, conducting direct examinations for the state, Clyde Chapman cross-examining for the defense;

SAW CARROLL IN CAR

The first witness called today was Hazel Talbot, 18.

Q—Do you know Francis Carroll? A—Yes.

Q—On the night of October 13th were you in South Paris? A—Yes.

Q—On that night were you invited to go for a ride? A—Yes.

Q—By whom? A—Robert Pierce. He lives in South Paris.

Q—Where did you go? A—We rode over to Paris Hill.

Q—What time was that? A—Between 7 and 7:30.

Q—Did you see Francis Carroll on Paris Hill that night? A—Yes.

Q—Where? A—He was sitting in a car parked beyond the Dwyer house on the other road.

Q—How do you know it was October 13? A—Because I remember I talked to my mother on the telephone and she reminded me that it was my sister Ruth's birthday.

Q—Did you see Francis Carroll on Paris Hill that night? A—Yes.

Q—Where? A—He was sitting in a car parked beyond the Dwyer house on the other road.

Q—Did you see Francis Carroll on Paris Hill that night? A—Yes.

Attorney Chapman pressed his cross-examination.

Q—When did you first learn about the lighters? A—I couldn't tell you, really, exactly.

Q—During the Dwyer trial at all? A—No, sir.

Q—How long after? A—Oh, about six weeks ago.

Q—Not until about six weeks ago? A—No, sir.

Hunt testified he spoke with Dwyer on one occasion, while riding with him in a car.

Q—What was said? A—Oh, we talked about the case.

Q—What did he say? A—Well, he said he figured there was a dope ring mixed up in it, and a girl angle.

Q—That was the first time you'd heard about the dope ring? A—Yes.

Next witness was Captain Harry Lyon, who was navigator of the airplane Southern Cross. He lives now on Paris Hill.

Q—Were you in your home on the night of October 13th? A—Par. of the evening, yes, sir.

Q—You mean by that you left home during the evening? A—Yes, sir.

Q—At what time? A—About 8:15.

Q—Where did you go? A—To Norway.

Q—What time did you return? A—About a quarter of eleven.

LIGHT IN DWYER HOME

Q—What did you see? A—I told my wife there was a light in the Dwyer home.

Q—You saw a light in the Dwyer home? A—Yes, sir.

Q—That was about a quarter of 11? A—Yes, sir, more or less. It might have been a few minutes earlier or a few minutes later.

Under cross-examination Lyon stated the light was in a room on the east side of the house. His own home is to the north.

Q—Did you observe any automobile parked near the Dwyer house? A—No, sir.

SAW NO CAR THERE

Q—Did you see any car in the Country Club parking space? A—No, sir.

Newton A. Cummings, also of Parla Hill, told of seeing a light. He had left home about 6 o'clock to go to Norway to a lodge meeting. He testified, and returned about 11:45.

Under cross-examination he also denied he saw any car parked at the Dwyer home or in the Country Club parking lot.

Another witness was Charles H. Coffren, night police officer. He testified it was he who drove Dwyer home one night about a week before the murder of Dr. Littlefield when Dwyer says a shot was fired at him.

Q—Did you hear any gun go off that night? A—No, sir.

Q—Were you in the sheriff's office the night of October 13th? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Who did you see there? A—I saw only the sheriff.

MEET CARROLL

Q—Was there a telephone call while you were there? A—Yes, a call for the sheriff.

Q—What did you do? A—I left with the sheriff about 10 o'clock or a few minutes after.

Q—You went with the sheriff to answer the call? A—Yes, sir.

Q—And when you got there did you see Mr. Carroll? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Did you see Mr. Carroll earlier that evening? A—Not that I remember.

Q—When you had gone with the sheriff—now, when you left the scene was Francis Carroll still there? A—He was across the street.

In cross-examination the police officer said in response to a question as to whether Carroll showed any signs of having been drinking.

"I didn't notice any intoxicating liquor on him at all."

CARROLL DIRECTED THEM

It was brought out that Sheriff Francis and the police officer, leaving the sheriff's office on the call met Carroll and Mrs. Carroll in Carroll's car at the foot of the hill below the courthouse. The sheriff, Coffren testified, asked directions of Carroll.

It was later, about 10 o'clock, Coffren said, that Carroll showed up where he and the sheriff had gone.

Carroll was there, Coffren testified, five or ten minutes before he and the sheriff left.

Next witness was 13-year-old Virginia Moore, likewise of Parla Hill.

Q—Do you recall the night of October 13th? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Where did you go that evening? A—I went to the library with my sister Priscilla.

Q—Now, about the Dwyer home, will you tell us if you saw anything there? A—Yes, sir, I saw two cars.

Q—Where was one? A—It was parked in the Country Club parking space.

Q—What kind of a car was it? A—It was a rather large rather dark-colored car.

Q—And where was the other? A—In front of the Dwyer house.

Q—What color was it? A—It was a dark blue or black, maybe.

Q—What time was this? A—Between 7:30 and quarter of 8.

Q—Was there anyone in either car? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Which car? A—The car in the parking space.

Q—Was it a man or a woman that you saw? A—It was a man.

Q—What did he look like? A—Virginia admitted, however, in direct examination, that she did not know who the man was. In cross-examination she was asked—

Q—How near to the car were you? A—About 10 feet.

Q—You know Mr. Carroll by sight? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Was it Mr. Carroll? A—I don't know.

Next witness was Warden John Welch of Thomaston prison, where young Dwyer now is serving his life sentence for the murder of Dr. Littlefield. Warden Welch told of Dwyer's "new" statement, naming Carroll as the actual murderer, being brought to his attention.

"I reported the statement to the attorney-general," he testified.

TALK OF PARDON

By Special Prosecutor Ingalls:

Q—Did you hear anyone say anything to Dwyer about a pardon? A—Yes, I heard you say so.

Q—Did I make any statement to him that a pardon was likely if Mr. Carroll was convicted in this case? A—No.

Under cross-examination Warden Welch was asked by Attorney Chapman:

"Didn't you say to me that Paul had a statement and that the state was in a hurry for it?"

The warden replied:

"No, I never said that."

Q—Why did it take you so long to turn Paul's statement over to the attorney-general? A—I wanted to check and check back on it.

TELLS OF DWYER VISIT

Q—Where is that statement now, if you know? A—I turned the statement over to the attorney-general and that's the last time I saw it.

Redirect examination by Prosecutor Ingalls of Warden Welch then began.

Q—Mr. Kavanaugh, a representative of a New York newspaper, and a Mr. Greenlaw came to see you? A—Yes.

Q—Did Mr. Kavanaugh tell you that he desired to see Mr. Dwyer? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Did he see him? A—Yes.

Q—How long were they there? A—I don't know exactly, our records don't show.

The first conference, Warden Welch testified, took place in the library of the prison.

Q—Did you hear what was said? A—Some of it, not all.

Q—Did that conversation have anything to do with the investigation of this case against the respondent here? A—Yes.

Q—You understood officially that the New York newspaper had been served with a civil court action? A—Yes.

Q—After the story was told by Dwyer involving Carroll, did you set a trap by him? A—The sheriff came to the prison and asked Dwyer if he would write to Carroll and arrange a meeting and asked me if a dictaphone could be installed to record their conversation.

Warden Welch testified he "never refused" Attorney Chipman, Carroll's counsel, permission to talk to Dwyer. Although he admitted, the Attorney-General had instructed him not to let Paul talk to anyone.

TELLS OF CARROLL VISIT

In redirect examination Warden Welch told of Carroll's visit to young Dwyer at the prison.

"Dwyer was excited," he testified.

"Carroll was sitting at the end of the table talking very earnestly. Dwyer was slumped over, his face as red as a beet."

Q—What was Dwyer's condition when you saw him? A—He was in a very upset condition.

Carroll Evidence

tion. I could see his heart beating through his shirt. The boy just gasped."

Q (by Attorney Chapman)—Mr. Warren, did Dwyer send a letter to the attorney general? A—I don't recall that he did. Next witness was Kenneth Goodwin of Norway.

PAUL'S FACE STERN

Q—Did you see Paul Dwyer on the night of October 13? A—Yes, sir. He was driving a large black car, I would say a sedan. By Attorney Chapman.

Q—It was unusual to see Paul Dwyer driving a car like Dr. Littlefield's. A—Yes, sir.

Q—Did you observe Paul's appearance. A—Yes, he had a stern face.

Walter Poindexter, adjutant of the Norway post of the American Legion, was next called. He testified that a meeting of the post of which Carroll is a member was held on the night of October 13th, the night of the murder. His attendance records for that meeting, Poindexter said, failed to show that Carroll was there.

Q (by Attorney Chapman)—You don't know whether Carroll was at that meeting or not other than that your memorandum fails to disclose his name? A—No, sir.

SAW CARROLLS THERE

Q—You don't remember seeing Carroll there? A—No. Q—When were you first called upon to remember Carroll was not at that meeting? A—Some time last spring.

Another witness was David Klain, commander of the American Legion post.

Q—There was a dinner given earlier that same night, the night of October 13th, by the American Legion Auxiliary. A—Yes.

Q—Was Francis Carroll there if you know? A—I believe he was there with Mrs. Carroll.

Q—Was there a later meeting that night? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Was Francis Carroll at that meeting? A—He was not.

PRODUCES LIGHTER

Deputy Sheriff Hunt was recalled to the stand and was the first witness after the noon recess.

Q—Mr. Hunt, you spoke this morning of having a cigaret lighter similar to that found at the scene of the crime. May I see it?

A—Yes, sir.

The lighter was produced and identified.

Sheriff Francis then was recalled to the stand.

Sheriff Francis, in cross examination by Attorney Chapman admitted that his previous testimony concerning Carroll's German mauser gun being "missing" from his office was misleading.

Q—You referred to a German gun. Were you looking for that particular gun? A—No, that is quite a large gun. I was looking for a gun to take with me. Any gun small enough to take down with me. There is usually a gun in my desk drawer.

Sheriff Francis similarly admitted that his testimony concerning the manner in which, after the murder, entrance to the Dwyer home was gained, likewise was faulty.

Also that there were some omissions in his account of the circumstances attending the finding of the cigaret lighter and the piece of wrench left in the upstairs hall of the Dwyer home.

Woman Leaps Off Ferry

able until she suddenly stepped over the guard chain at the ferry's bow, opposite the Simpson drydock, and plunged into the harbor.

She was swept along the starboard side of the craft as Max J. Heichman, 20, of 17 Florence street, Revere, leaped fully clad in after her.

Meanwhile Captain John A. Barber signaled the engine room to stop the engines, and First Mate Martin Roper ordered a boat lowered.

Roper, a deckhand and an engineer, with Wilfred Boudreau, Summer street, East Boston, manned the boat. Boudreau stripped off most of his clothing, dived into the harbor and aided Heichman to seize the woman.

Chicago Probes 7th Gang Death

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 (AP)—Daylight today uncovered the seventh gangster-style slaying in Chicago within seven weeks and the second within 24 hours.

Huddled near a wall of the Chicago White Sox baseball field, the body of Sam (Frog Legs) Picciotto, 23, was found by passersby shortly after daybreak. The park is less than a mile from where James G. Dungan, business agent of a painters' union, was slain last night.

Hunt Wealthy Lumberman

GLOUCESTER, Aug. 9—An infrequent citizens' alarm was sounded here today to enlist volunteers in an intensive local search for Charles S. Nause, 66, married, wealthy lumber merchant, missing from his Monson street home for 12 hours.

Mrs. Fannie Nause told police her husband was last seen at the Gloucester railroad depot.

BALBO HOPS TO BERLIN

ROME, Aug. 9 (INS)—In another gesture emphasizing the bond of the Rome-Berlin axis, Marshal Balbo was scheduled today to take off from Tripoli on a non-stop flight for Berlin. Balbo will be accompanied by the same Italian fliers who made the mass flight from Italy to Chicago and return, several years ago.

Quins Better, Win 'Battle'

CALLANDER, Ontario, Aug. 9 (Canadian Press)—Dr. Allan Roy Daffoe agreed today to reunite the Dienne quintuplets on condition they "behave."

He relented after four of the sisters had raised a fuss over Emilie's isolation in another room.

The quintuplets have been ill for several days with throat infections. Emilie's illness was noticed Friday and on Saturday she was separated from her sisters. They also became ill. Emilie disliked being alone and Yvonne, Marie, Cecile and Annette loudly protested against her absence.

Portland Water Victim Suicide

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 9 (AP)—County Attorney Albert Knudsen today said Augustine B. Colussi, 45, waterfront fish company executive whose trusted body was found at a wharf here yesterday, apparently was a "suicide."

Dr. Wilbur F. Leighton, medical examiner, said Colussi drowned. At the same time, police said a cablegram from Tunis, Africa, first interpreted as a "suicide," was merely a business message.

GAS KILLS MINERS

MINERSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 9 (AP)—Two men were asphyxiated by mine gas about 12 feet from the mouth of an abandoned shaft near here.

Boston After Dark

By PAUL WHELTON

If some of their neighbors are wondering why a few Greater Boston lads who have been sturdy citizens (at least on the surface on the home grounds) suddenly departed, and are still gone, the answer probably will be found shortly at the Federal Bldg. . . . This corner learns that Uncle Sam's delvers have been very busy and have come up with pay dirt (particular emphasis on the last) in connection with a $200,000 swindle in the name of a fly-by-night banking institution. . . . The mistake was made when the authors used the mails. . . . Some supposedly reputable figures in the Hub business world got their fingers dirty here and it does look as if the stuff won't wash off.

Paul Whelton

All Is Confusion:

If you would have gloom, read this editorial, captioned "Today":

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years—not in the lifetime of most men who read this—has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time. In our own country there is universal commercial prostration and panic, and thousands of our poorest fellow citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment and without the prospect of it.

"In France the political caldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty; Russia hangs as usual, like a cloud, dark and silent, upon the horizon of Europe; while all the energies, resources and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried. . . . etc., etc."

So you think things are tough now? Well, that's an editorial printed in Harper's Weekly October 10, 1857, and being circulated in a reprint by the Massachusetts Envelope Co. to make you feel better.

Hither and Yon:

Summer residents who are reaping a bonanza parking car—on a dime a chariot—on the beach end of the road leading to Oak Island may be lining up a tragedy. . . . Many of the cars are parked on either side of the bridge. . . . Not only is the passing of other machines made hazardous but the weight piled up is close to the safety margin for the underpinning. . . . Asst. U. S. Atty. Arthur J. B. Cartier is making a hit with his weekly air broadcasts on how to detect phony money. . . .

Two Bay State Charlies on the comeback trail in Hollywood are Cape Cod's Charlie Farrell and Athol's Charlie Starrett. . . . Incidentally, Farrell has a pair of fives that belie his gentle face. . . . One of his best references is another B. U. grad, Mickey Cochrane, who, with Charlie, made up the pair of two-fisted tops at the school. . . . And there probably was no one sorrier than Farrell to see Black Mike handed a large Double-X in Detroit.

John Spellman, matman with the Ostermoor chest, is now grooming in Australia. . . . And Yvon Robert, this corner is told by his mgr., Waltham Eddie Quinn, will go to Paris, land of his forebears, shortly after Xmas. . . . He'll probably match grips there with Dan O'Mahony and Henry DeGlance. . . . Mark Neamith punch-hitting for G. Harold Noyes, the Hub weather caller who scrambled off on vacation in the midst of the heat wave.

Little Helper:

The stranger who asked for Dist. Atty. Warren Bishop over at the Middlesex county offices was ushered into the prosecutor's presence.

"Warren," said the lad, chummily, "I've been doing a great job for you in the campaign. I've been working night and day lining them up and everybody's with you."

"Fine," beamed the D. A. "That's very nice of you. And where have you been working?"

"Well, I worked Needham and Dedham over the week-end. I think you're in."

"That's great," said Bishop politely, ushering the visitor out. "I'll need all the votes I can get in Norfolk county."

Short Shots:

H. M. Addison, northeastern div. mgr. for Loew's Theaters, is injecting real showmanship into arrangements for the annual field day of the Sportmen's Clubs of the Middlesex County League. . . . Backhand Tells of Depression

By HELEN FAYNE

Inferiorly complex and self-consciousness are the two worst handicaps any person has to combat today.

They hold us back from realizing those dreams and ambitions that most of us have. We all admire the person who seems to know just what to say and do at the right time.

We want to do this or that but feel that we are not capable or that we wouldn't do it as completely as the other fellow.

High schools in New York and other parts of the country are now giving students Personality Ratings; scholastic marks alone are no longer the measuring stick of success.

This personality check-up is based on personal attractiveness, emotional control, purposeful thinking, trustworthiness, leadership ability, social adaptability, speech, voice and health.

PRACTICAL PROGRAM

Where a student's personality record shows he is lacking in a desirable characteristic, he is coached in this particular field. A trained psychologist is in charge and this is now considered a most practical school program.

The sensitive, impressionable child, suffering from too much potent-domination and discipline, may seek refuge within himself in an attempt to escape such harsh technique of the parents. If this natural bent is encouraged he is very likely to grow up to be the quiet underconformative person, but very often also the studious one.

CONSIDERED HIGH HAT

Some people wonder why they are not popular, and it is often because they feel intellectually superior and are critical and aloof. Their minds are developed in advance of their emotions, they don't let themselves go, and because of this independent, self-sufficient attitude, they are often considered "high hat."

Are you the reticent, too reserved type? Are you self-conscious or lack the faculty of making friends? Then why not do something about it?

'Urge to Kill' Blamed in Vt. Stabbing

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Aug. 9. (C.A.) O'Donnell, 20, a member of one of the wealthiest families in this city, was hanged today for the murder of Wellington Churchill, 31, committed because he "happened to feel a knife in his pocket."

O'Donnell made one of the most amazing confessions to a murder without a motive ever heard in this state, and then collapsed.

State Detective Fitzgerald quoted O'Donnell as saying:

"It will be hard for you gentlemen to understand this affair. As a matter of fact I cannot understand it myself."

"There wasn't the slightest reason in the world for me to kill him. I hadn't even thought of doing such a thing until I happened to put my hand in my pocket and felt the knife there."

"At the moment I felt the knife Wellington happened to be leaning over reaching for something on the floor and I pulled the knife from my pocket and plunged it into his back."

"Since then, I have suffered terrible torture. Twice I decided to end my life by drowning. I jumped into the water once and then I changed my mind and got myself out. I just couldn't get up the courage to kill myself."

Girl About Town by Marjorie McBride

WHEN BOSTON old timers who have a love of the theater in their blood get together these days and talk about "the girl about town," they usually refer to the New York actress who has been in the city since 1910.

Marjorie McBride

For some years, I have been writing about the girl about town, and I have been writing about her in a way that has been both interesting and amusing to my readers.

She is a girl who has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910.

"I want it back by Friday."

HOLLYWOOD, I have been told, is the most beautiful city in the world. It is a city of beauty and of beauty. It is a city of beauty and of beauty. It is a city of beauty and of beauty.

THE CITY OF HOLLYWOOD, I have been told, is the most beautiful city in the world. It is a city of beauty and of beauty. It is a city of beauty and of beauty. It is a city of beauty and of beauty.

Mother's Gift by Hugh S. Johnson

BETHANY BEACH, DEL. To the mother who gave me life, I owe my life. I owe my life to the mother who gave me life. I owe my life to the mother who gave me life.

"Dear Mother, This letter is to tell you how much I love you. I love you so much that I want to tell you how much I love you. I love you so much that I want to tell you how much I love you."

General Johnson

She has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910.

"OH YIPAH! Here we have it all. The mother, the father, and the child. The mother, the father, and the child. The mother, the father, and the child."

and the rest of Chang's illusions might as well have been performed in a dark alley.

IF YOUR mother is a girl about town, you will find her in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910.

The fund of the girl about town is a girl about town. The fund of the girl about town is a girl about town. The fund of the girl about town is a girl about town.

ALL THE FINEST of the girl about town is a girl about town. All the finest of the girl about town is a girl about town. All the finest of the girl about town is a girl about town.

"Madame, we shall certainly be waiting in the treatment of your case."

A GIRL ABOUT TOWN, I have been told, is the most beautiful city in the world. It is a city of beauty and of beauty. It is a city of beauty and of beauty. It is a city of beauty and of beauty.

THEY are the girls who are in the city since 1910, and they have been in the city since 1910, and they have been in the city since 1910.

EVERYBODY I know, whether it be a girl about town or a boy about town, is a girl about town. Everybody I know, whether it be a girl about town or a boy about town, is a girl about town.

MR. WANGER, who has been in the city since 1910, and he has been in the city since 1910, and he has been in the city since 1910.

EVERYTHING is a girl about town. Everything is a girl about town. Everything is a girl about town. Everything is a girl about town.

by Hugh S. Johnson

THIS is the deepest, darkest, and most mysterious of the few thinkers who are left in the world.

It is a girl about town, and she has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910, and she has been in the city since 1910.

In our own country, there are a few thinkers who are left in the world. In our own country, there are a few thinkers who are left in the world.

THE LADY who wrote the first book on the subject of the girl about town is a girl about town. The lady who wrote the first book on the subject of the girl about town is a girl about town.

Maybe that is all there is to the girl about town. Maybe that is all there is to the girl about town. Maybe that is all there is to the girl about town.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

"I'VE BEEN in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910."

The girl about town is a girl about town. The girl about town is a girl about town. The girl about town is a girl about town.

Under the name of the girl about town, I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910.

And I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910.

So I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910.

"WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU? I want to know what is the matter with you. I want to know what is the matter with you."

So I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910.

BEFORE I was in the city since 1910, and I was in the city since 1910, and I was in the city since 1910.

GREAT MEN HAVE BEEN IN THE CITY SINCE 1910, AND THEY HAVE BEEN IN THE CITY SINCE 1910.

That was the first time I was in the city since 1910, and I was in the city since 1910, and I was in the city since 1910.

And I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910, and I have been in the city since 1910.

"Joe, Forgive Me If Ya Can"

What happens WHEN MARRIAGE IS BASED ON PHYSICAL ATTRACTION?

Book-Length True Story of an "Infatuation Marriage"

MY FIRST meeting with Adrian Carr was like an emotional explosion." Thus begins one of the most moving human documents we ever published—the personal, true life story of a man who married a girl whose physical appeal he couldn't resist.

Somehow, deep down within him, he knew she was not the right girl for him. His vision and hers, of what constituted a happy life, were so very far apart. But he wanted her—couldn't live without her.

So they were married, and—

Like two corks caught up in the boiling current of a swift stream, these two rushed headlong through an amazing succession of events. You'll never guess the outcome; you must read every vivid, throbbing chapter of "I COULDN'T LIVE WITHOUT HER."

The whole compelling story from the first explosive meeting to the final crashing climax appears as a book-length feature in the big, new September issue of True Story magazine, out today. And it is only one of the many gripping true stories and special features contained in this unique, stranger-than-fiction magazine.

"Lonely Wife"—"Because I Knew His Secret"—"The Woman Who Broke Up My Home"—"My Mother's Past"—these are some of the absorbing stories taken straight from life—stories in which real men and women face the real problems of human existence—stories in which you will see your friends, your relatives, yourself. You may find the solution to your biggest problem in the September issue of True Story magazine. Get your copy today

Hair Goes Up In New Style

Special to the Boston Evening American

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—"A new type of woman is coming in and a familiar type is going out" declares Carmel Snow, brilliant editor of Harper's Bazaar, in Paris.

It's all in the hair.

Carmel Snow's startling note came in a radio resume of the fall and winter fashion by highlighting the new hair styles.

Heard by millions throughout the country this week.

"I am talking to you from Paris, where, as usual at this time of year, the fashion collections have opened in a dither of excitement plus a heat wave. No the collections have had a special atmosphere of their own, a mixture of wonderful clothes, fine paper forms, more wonderful clothes."

HAIR MAKES FASHION

"There's a lot that's spectacular—but tonight I can only give you the highlights, and I think I'll start first with the biggest piece of news of all, which is that this year there's a New Deal in beauty."

"Hair makes the fashion and it's what makes the difference. Whether you wear it up on top of your head or whether you continue to wear it down on your shoulders is the big Paris question."

"Is hair more seductive up or is it more killing down? It's a real question mark."

"Men will be full of answers and will probably have a lot to say. They'll be terrible for it or terribly against it. But don't forget that when women started bobbing their hair fathers were shocked and husbands raved, and many a wife had to ask permission before she dared brave the barber's scissors."

"Don't be discouraged and think that the new way of doing the hair up is very difficult. It's really quite simple. The back hair is brushed up straight, smooth off the neck."

LOOSE OVER FRONT

"The hair is drawn up from the ears, and then the whole thing is loosened over the front of the head and fastened in a pompadour but in an arranged mass of easy waves or curls."

"Your hair will want all your features will want to have as much with your hair up. Your face will not only have to be washed, but positively groomed—they'll be so important."

"The woman with small features is going to come into her own and be the new beauty. The fineness of the head is important. Possibly at first you may think you look older with your hair up. But if you do, you'll be more feminine, more enchanting and much more womanly. It's the grown up look versus the glamour girl, and the adult woman has a wonderful chance."

It will be interesting to see what certain of the movie stars are going to make of themselves along these new beauty lines. Study yourself and see what you can do so as not to look dated, which you surely will if your hair is hanging around your shoulders. I believe in the hair up 100 per cent."

Blind Golfer Is Wonder of Links

Wins Praise of Freddy Corcoran

By JACK CONWAY

I FEEL very much ashamed of my golf score when Freddy Corcoran tells me that Dr. William J. H. Oxenham, blind English golfer, usually turns in a card of from 85 to 88. I am still one of those golfers who cheers any time I get under 100, and I must add that I have never got hoarse as a result of too much cheering.

Mr. Boston

"I saw Dr. Oxenham play golf in Cleveland," said Corcoran. "Dr. Oxenham lost his sight in the World War. He married following the war, and has been touring this country with his wife and 17-year-old son."

"Dr. Oxenham wears dark glasses when on the links. His caddy places the head of his club against the ball, and then informs the blind golfer as to distance, the type of land ahead and other details."

"On the greens, the putts are lined up for Dr. Oxenham, and he is told the distance his ball is from the cup. It is amazing how well he does on his putts."

"Dr. Oxenham didn't live in a section where there were golf courses before he lost his sight, and has never seen one."

CORCORAN, BEATING OFF THE CHALLENGE OF THE NEW YORKER, WILL FEATURE LAWRENCE LITTLE, Horton Smith, Harry Cooper and Jimmy Thomson for the Christmas Basket Fund of the Boston Evening American-Sunday Advertiser at the Belmont Country Club on August 28. He believes this match will give the best competition, and that it will attract the largest gallery ever at a golf exhibition in New England.

McCoy Lost 10 Pounds During Bout

AL MCCOY, who is visiting with friends in Boston following his winning ten-round bout with Harry Thomas in Montreal, says he lost ten pounds during the tussle.

"The temperature in Montreal on the night of the bout was 100 degrees," said McCoy, "and it must have been 115 degrees under the ring lights. I weighed 181 pounds when I scaled in on the afternoon of the show, while I was 171 pounds after I was awarded the decision."

"Thomas lost eight and a half pounds."

"I used my left hand to good advantage all through the bout, and had a comfortable margin of points in my favor when the tussle ended."

Giants at Hive Sox Face A's

Deacon Dan Hurls for B's

New York's fast fading Giants come slinking into the Bee Hive this p. m. to open a three-game series with our Bees, who are really traveling on high.

In fact, our Bees, who have not lost a series since returning home and who now boast a record of nine wins out of fifteen games have better than an even chance of taking the odd game from the Terrymen.

In order to get away to a real start, Stengel is sending Deacon Danny MacFayden to the hill today.

The Deacon has been going great guns since returning to action and has even intention of hanging up his eleven win of the season today.

Cliff Melton, Giants left hander, will furnish the opposition.

Cliff has two verdicts in three starts over the Bees to date, but one case is cocky enough to believe the Swarm will make it 500 today.

Bill Terry, naturally, fails to share the enthusiasm of the Bees pilot.

Terry realizes the task of catching the Pirates grows slimmer each day, but he also realizes that if his Giants continue to slip it means fourth place, in view of the fact that the Cubs and Reds are right on the heels of the New Yorkers.

It may be baseball, but it's not cricket. Mickey Cochrane leaving Briggs stadium (which he built) after being summarily fired by Owner W. O. Briggs.

Detroit Mayor Names Committees

DETROIT, Aug. 9 (INS).—Two Olympic games committees today were appointed by Mayor Richard W. Reading in hope of bringing the 1944 Olympics here.

One committee, headed by the mayor, will prepare and offer Detroit's formal bid to the games, the other will select a site for a stadium to house them.

then hop over the lightweight class and annex the welterweight crown is certainly entitled to serious consideration.

The Armstrong-Ambers bout has not caused any great drive at the ticket office. There are too many people who think Armstrong is a sure winner to make the match a financial success.

Then it has been warm in New York, while there are many of the brighter Broadway figures at the races at Saratoga.

Random Shots at the Target

IT IS seldom that baseball fans, players, managers and club owners have been so outspoken as they were in condemning the action of the Detroit club in firing Mickey Cochrane. . . It is such things that take sentiment out of baseball, and cause the public to believe the national pastime is purely a commercial proposition. . . Cochrane did not receive any consideration for his excellent record with the Tigers, and the fact he almost lost his life while on the playing field.

Cochrane will receive the balance of his year's salary, and will rest until the fall when he will make plans for next year. . . Mickey's heart is still in baseball, and he is anxious to remain in the game he loves so much.

Veteran Harris Hurls for Hose

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—Trainer Win Green opines it will be a week or ten days before Frank "Pinky" Higgins will be able to return to third base for the Red Sox, which means that Boston fans will get a peek at young Jim Tabor before he is sent back to Minneapolis.

The kid is worth looking at, as you've probably guessed if you've been reading the Sox box scores. Bashing out doubles on his first two trips to the plate in the majors, he's continued to hit at a 300 clip. His fielding has been sensational. His remarkable arm left the Indians and Tigers breathless.

A rookie who appeared two years away when he was being tried out at Sarasota last spring, the 22-year-old Alabamian must now be conceded a chance of supplanting Higgins as the Sox regular third-sacker before he celebrates another birthday.

BUSH WANTS HIM BACK

In fact, so surprisingly brilliant has been Tabor's showing that he'd be retained by the Sox for the remainder of the season if he weren't needed so badly by Minneapolis.

Little Donie Bush, manager of the Millers, phones daily for the latest reports on Higgins. "We've dropped out of the first division since Tabor left us, and I'm afraid we'll fall right out of the American Association if we don't get him back in a hurry," means the pilot.

But as is set down above, Donie must wait until Sox home followers have a look at this star of tomorrow.

Another bit of news concerning Tabor was announced by Manager Joe Cronin today.

Jim will move up from seventh to sixth place in the batting order, changing places with Bobby Doerr, in the opener of the three-game series with the Athletics this p. m. Doerr, who had been hitting very well while swinging in the seventh slot, has been in a slump since he was pushed up a notch when Tabor broke into the lineup.

HARRIS ON MOUND

Bill Harris, 35-year-old side-arm veteran from Buffalo, remains the pitching selection for this afternoon, but there's some doubt whether Mose Grove will start tomorrow, as had been planned.

The Sox southpaw ace has felt a stiffness in and underneath the shoulder of his erstwhile "dead" arm since pitching batting practice before Sunday's game in Detroit.

Grimm Gets $100 Per Day

By the Associated Press

Out in Detroit they're still wondering what all the shouting was about. . . But Mickey Cochrane will be back in the majors one of these days, and it'll be darn nice to see him back. . . Mebbe Phil Wrigley will grab him for the Cub board of strategy.

Cefeirino Garcia, No. 1 welterweight challenger, drove here from Los Angeles in three and a half days. . . They are telling it around town that Babe Ruth has sunk $100,000 in the Brooklyn Dodgers. . . Charlie Grimm should worry—he's getting $100 a day for broadcasting games played by the team he used to manage. . . Willie London, south of Washington, traveled all the way from High Point, N. C., to see Ambers and Armstrong. . . Mike Jacobs probably would give him a pass only it takes three chairs to accommodate Willie. . .

Fight tip: Elmer former light-weight champs experted on Ambers and Armstrong via the air waves last night, and seven of 'em picked Armstrong. . . Old Rocky Kansas was the only dissenter. . . (our four-star special appears tomorrow). . . Visiting ball players usually head straight for Jimmy Braddock's place. . . By the way, why doesn't Joe Gould make a heavyweight out of Mike O'Connor, his big Irish barkeep? . . . That fellow is packing the dames so thick around the bar, we guys can't crowd in for a quick one. . .

The Yankees got back to town yelling Cochrane got a raw deal. . .

That yarn about the cross-eyed pitcher down in Gaston County, N. C., sure started the boys talking. . . Lieutenant

N. C. Grover of Pensacola, Fla., says they ought to put a hose-blinder over the pitchers' left eyes. . . Henry J. Ledoux of Monroe, La., says if he happened to be umpiring he'd just "quit" crossing me up, "big boy" and let "go" at that. . . And Harry L. Riddle, Jr., of Nags Head, N. C., suggests that if the pitcher is called for talking he submit the seemingly successful defense of a faulty compass, a la Corrigan. . .

Jimmy Braddock

All of which reminds Pete Murray of Charleston, W. Va., of a bush league team that trained down that way last spring. . . On the first day three cross-eyed infielders reported. . . "Where do you play?" the manager asked the guy on the left. "First base," said the guy in the middle. . . "Who's talking to you?" says the manager. . . "I didn't say nothing," broke in the guy on the right. . .

FRANK KOVACS

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 9 (INS).—Officials of the United States Lawn Tennis Association today called "utterly ridiculous" the announced intention of George Hudson, coach of the Berkeley Tennis Club of Berkeley, Cal., to bring suit against the net body for intimidation and interference with his livelihood. . . Hudson, coach of Frank Kovacs, and other good prospects, made a statement in which he said that his lawyers were studying grounds for legal action.

According to Hudson, the action will be based upon the severance of relations between himself and Kovacs, which he claims was brought about by certain tennis executives.

Kovacs, questioned on Hudson's contemplated move, said: "Hudson never gave me one stroke. My father paid for every lesson I received from him."

"It's true that I told Walter Faye (non-playing captain of the Davis Cup team) at Seabright, that Hudson was ruining my concentration by hanging around. I could not tell him to stay away from me. It's a free country."

Faye denied the U. S. L. T. A. had anything to do with the break between Kovacs and his coach.

Firpo, Dusek At Arena

Joe Firpo, just back from the Argentine, clashes with George Dusek in one of the feature bouts at Charlie Gordon's wrestling show at the Arena tomorrow night.

Salvo Adams will clash with Mickie Travers, Columbia University idol. Al Caddell, British lightweight champion, may steal some of the spotlight when he meets Sandy MacDonald, Scottish star. Ted Germaine, Boston's own "bad-man" will be on hand to meet Chippewa Charlie, the wild Indian star.

Kipke Leading In Coaches Poll

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 (INS).—Harry Kipke, the coach without a football team, who was fired as the University of Michigan gridiron mentor last year, today was leading the national coaches poll through which fans were selecting the coaching staff for the All-American college team.

The newspaper and radio station poll ended at Sunday midnight, but tabulation is not complete as yet. However, at the latest counting more than 14,500 football fans throughout the country had participated in the voting.

WHITE OFF TO CAMP

DENVER, Aug. 9 (INS).—Byron R. (Whizzer) White, Colorado University's All-American football star and Rhodes scholar, was to leave Denver today aboard an airplane for Loretto, Pa. He will join the Pittsburgh Pirates professional football squad there.

LEGION 'RUBBER' GAME

Revere Post and Wollaston Post meet this evening at Paul Revere Park. Revere, in the third and deciding game of their Junior Legion championship series. Wollaston won the first game Sunday, 3 to 2, but the Beach City boys came back last night to square the series, 10 to 5.

Ten Starters To Start in Hambletonian

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 9 (AP)—Ten high ranking three-year-old trotters, headed by the favored pair of Long Key and McLin, today were named for the 13th renewal of the $40,000 Hambletonian, one of Good Time Park's triangular course tomorrow.

Long Key, owned by E. J. Merkle of Columbus, Ohio, is expected to go postward at 6 to 5 to win trotting's richest race, with McLin recently purchased by Lawrence B. Sheppard of the Hanover, Pa., shoe farms for $20,000, the second choice at 5 to 2.

LONG KEY ON RAIL

Long Key, winner of the championship stallion and American stakes this year after failing to show much as a two-year-old, was favored in the draw for post positions for the first heat. Ben White, trainer and driver of the son of Peter Volo-Isaiah's Worthy, herself winner of the race in 1927—drew second position from the rail with Professor on the pole.

Neither was McLin treated badly in the draw. Henry Thomas, who won last year with the Hanover Farm's Shirley Hanover, will start the Mr. McElwyn colt from fifth position.

Earl's Princess Martha drew No. 2, Earl's Mr. Royal No. 4, The Duchess No. 6, Will Spencer No. 7, Champlain No. 8, Dale Hanover No. 9 and Prohibitor No. 10.

The $500 starting fee also was posted for William Hughes' Champlainwind, J. J. McIntyre's Earl's and Mr. Will, Elbridge T. Gerry's Dale Hanover; Earl's Princess Martha owned by Earl F. Shropshire, of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mark Kyler's Professor of North Tonawanda, N. Y.; Prohibitor, from E. Roland Harriman's Ardus, Home of Goshen; Homer Bier's Royal Spencer of Butler, Pa., and the Duchess, purchased last fall by Count Mangelli of Milan, Italy, and left in this country in charge of Will Canell.

Solar Plexus Blow for Dilbooy Hand May Delay Ford's Return

Another sparkling amateur boxing show will be seen tomorrow night at Dilbooy Field, Somerville, under the auspices of the Dilbooy Post, V. F. W., with Richard "Ticky" Ford of Lawrence, national 135-pound champion, expected to head the cast of clouters.

Ford has sent an entry for his return to the ring wars, his first appearance since he punched his way to the U. S. title, but it won't be known definitely until tonight whether or not he'll appear.

Ford is reported to have suffered a hand injury in training at Lawrence and may be forced to postpone a return for a week.

In the 135-pound class, ready to take a belt at Ford, are Dom DeClanis, Providence; Ernie Rogers, Fall River, and Noble Ray, Belmont.

Boxing will be in the 118, 126, 135, 147 and heavyweight divisions, all open.

Paddy Devine, Cambridge, is due to return to the heavyweight battling, with opposition to be provided by John Creggan, Providence; Cobb Hackett, Fall River, and others.

Mike DiNapoli, Rosindale, and Ray Tammany, Providence, will feature the 147s; Guy Vitagliano, Medford; Dick Volpe, Wakefield, a champion, and John Lynch, Cambridge, will be on hand for the 118's.

Entries close with Fred Russo, director, at Dilbooy Post, V. F. W., 8 Curtis street, Somerville.

Kilmer Stock In Demand

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 9 (AP)—Maryland and Virginia horsemen have "kicked" from time to time that the Saratoga yearling sales are arranged so that the Kentucky breeders get the best dates and consequently the best prices, but that doesn't hold true when the offerings of Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Court Manor stud, at the Market, Va., parade in the sales paddock.

The sons and daughters of Sun Beau, the world's greatest money winner of racing, and his daddy, Sun Briar, seldom fail to command good prices and bring out the bidders even on a showery Monday night.

Last night the 46 head of the Court Manor consignment brought a total of $107,300, averaging $2333 per head.

The top price of the sale was $12,000, paid by Selby Burch for a big, handsome colt by Sun Briar out of Rose Petal after a brisk bidding bout with Anthony Pelletieri, trainer for the Milldale Stable.

Another good price also came of Pelletieri's interest when he boosted the bidding on a black colt by Meddle-Min-Friary to $6,000 before it was knocked down to the Tall Trees Stable.

Warren Wright of Chicago, who has done considerable buying, paid $6,000 for a Sun Briar-Felside filly.

Mickey Flies To Chicago

DETROIT, Aug. 9 (AP)—Sull noncommittal, ex-Manager Mickey Cochrane of the Detroit Tigers, has left Detroit behind him and any discussion of his removal from the Bengals' leadership to baseball gossip in general.

Altering his plans, Cochrane departed by plane for Chicago on the first leg of a vacation trip to a Wyoming ranch.

Cochrane said he planned to remain a day in Chicago with his small daughter and friends, Mrs. Cochrane and a son were to join Mickey today for the trip to Cody, Wyo.

Mickey spent part of the day getting his fishing tackle in shape, packing and bidding goodbye to friends.

Alice Marble Near Peak For Joust

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 9 (AP)—Three consecutive days of rain have thrown the Eastern grass courts tennis championships at the Westchester Country Club into considerable confusion and only the play of Alice Marble has relieved the monotony.

While officials have been struggling to cut down the doubles field and burning prayer papers to the weatherman, Miss Marble has served notice on the tennis world that she will be at her best in the national championships next month.

Despite the fact that Alice's play is inclined to be spotty over a season, observers here believe she is playing her best game in preparation for the tourney in which she must meet among others, the challenge of the older and more noted Helen Wills Moody and Helen Jacobs.

Lleanor Tennant, who coaches Miss Marble, has insisted all summer that the blonde Alice will change women's tennis considerably before she hangs up her rackets.

Thus far Miss Marble's work up here has borne out her coach's prediction and never more than in her 6-0, 6-1 defeat of Alice Bernhard, of New York, winner of the Longwood trophy.

Hitting the flat shot almost exclusively and setting her own pace, Miss Marble took 17 of the first 18 points—a fine average when Miss Bernhard's place in the top brackets this summer is taken into consideration.

Weather cloudy; track muddy.
